Copy of letter No.18-Ly/53. dated 19th December 1953 from the Under Secretary, Parliament House, New Delhi,I. to the Director, Dept.of Archaeology, Mysore.

Subject: Supply of Archaeological Publications to the Parliament Library.

~~I am directed to invite your attention to this~~ Secretariat letter of even number dated the 16th November 1953, wherein you were requested kindly to supply to this Secretariat for the Parliament Library five copies each of the archaeological publications of your Department, whether in the form of reports, books, pamphlets, or photographs.

Since the Parliament Library is a repository of all official publications, both of the Central as well as State Governments, you were further requested to place the name of the Library on your mailing list for free regular supply of all such publications as might be published in future.

In case no such publications are being published by your Department a reply to that effect will be greatly appreciated.

A very early compliance on your part will oblige.
